

Stake Conference Is Sunday

For ElRay L. Christiansen, an Assistant to the Council of Twelve Apostles of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, will speak at the Wasatch Stake Conference Saturday and Sunday, June 17 and 18.

ELDER CHRISTIANSEN is coordinator of the 13 Mormon Temples in North America, Europe, Hawaii, and New Zealand. An educator by profession, he taught in public and church schools and was a high school principal. He was also a soils and grazing official for the U. S. Government.

Other visitors representing Church headquarters in Salt Lake City will be Elder George Z. Aposhian, of the Priesthood Home Teaching Committee, and Elder Robert M. Cundick of the Sunday School General Board.

ELDER APOSHIAN served as president of the Central Atlantic States Mission for four years. Previously, he was the president of Wilford Stake in Salt Lake City. He has been a bishop, high councilman and an officer and teacher in the various Church organizations. He served as a missionary in California.

ELDER CUNDICK, a Church organist since he was twelve, received his Ph.D. in music at the University of Utah in 1955. He taught at the Utah institution and at Brigham Young University, where he was an associate professor of music when named Tabernacle Organist in 1957. He is a prolific composer with a long list of published compositions to his credit.
